“ You were a wonderful step-dad, pee-pie! I am so grateful for the time God put you in my life. You taught me many things. You showed me how to shoot a shotgun, when we were hunting for squirrels. You taught me how to play poker when i asked you to show me. You were brave (or crazy) to marry my mom with 5 teenagers and you defended me against some those bad boys. I always respected and loved you. I am so glad the earthly suffering is over for you. You will be missed by me and many!

“ Won't ever forget how good you and Bro. Darrell treated us a few years ago when we came to Crown Point for revival. Always thought of you as family, but Bro. Darrell was right there every time we came. Sat with us at lunch and after night service. He made us feel right at home and loved. That special treatment has never left! Never will>>>
