“ *I so enjoyed working with Ruby at Maples. I ran into her a while back and enjoyed a short conversation with her. I never visited with her after we left Maples, but I never failed throwing my hand up and yelling "hey Ruby " when I would pass her house. We enjoyed many laughs together and she gave me a pretty little jar with glycerin in it so we could put on our hands and pick up the labels for the rugs better. I will never forget you, Ruby!
